

PAUL SHOOPMAN HOMES NAMED 2-10 HOME BUYERS WARRANTY DIAMOND BUILDER

(November 2010) DENVER – Paul Shoopman Homebuilding Group of Indianapolis, Indiana, has been named a Diamond Builder by 2-10 Home Buyers Warranty for Paul Shoopman’s years of excellence in construction standards, customer satisfaction and financial stability.

The prestigious Diamond Builder Award puts Paul Shoopman Homebuilding Group in the top one percent among builders who provide customers with the superior home warranty protection of 2-10 Home Buyers Warranty. Only 46 builders have received the designation in the last two decades.

“We’ve worked hard to put our customers first and to build solid custom homes, and we’re honored that 2-10 Home Buyers Warranty has affirmed our commitment to quality with this Diamond Builder Award,” CEO Paul Shoopman said.

Formed in 2004, Paul Shoopman Homebuilding Group offers over 43 floor plans in 22 locations throughout the greater Indianapolis area, with prices ranging from the low $100,000’s to $500,000 and above. The company’s awards include E&Y Entrepreneur of the Year, John C. Hart Presidential Award, and BAGI Builder of the Year.

2-10 Home Buyers Warranty New Home Division President Mark Lewis said Paul Shoopman Homebuilding Group has earned its reputation as a premier builder.

“It is exciting for us to extend this exclusive status to Paul Shoopman, one of our long-time partners,” Lewis said. “Because Paul Shoopman is dedicated to quality workmanship and customer satisfaction, 2-10 Home Buyers Warranty knows it can assure people who buy Shoopman homes that they are getting an outstanding residence they can call home for many years.”

The Diamond Builder Award honors builders who maintain the highest quality in building and customer satisfaction. In addition to establishing an outstanding personal reputation and proper warranty performance, 2-10 Home Buyers Warranty Diamond Builders also must demonstrate financial stability, superior construction standards and distinguished design development. Homes built by Paul Shoopman Homebuilding Group are backed by the 2-10 HBW Structural Warranty.
